PRESS RELEASE

Around 2.500 Scouts from the whole country met the last weekend in Granada to celebrate its anual Scout Festival.

Children and young people from every place in Spain enjoyed the Scout Festival 2013, under the theme "Largas Lunas".

Madrid 24/05/2013.- ASDE-Scouts of Spain together with ASDE-Scouts in Andalucía were organasing the Scout Festival 2013, an anual event celebrated since 30 years ago, in different spanish cities. This time the Festival was hosted by the city of Granada, in the southeast of Spain. The 39th Scout Festival has collected around 2.500 children and youngs between 6 and 21 years old. This event supposes an essential date for thousands young Scouts gathered to participate in different educative activities. The main activity in this meeting is a scout songs contest. This year the topic in the Festival was the celebration of the millennium of the Kingdom of Granada. At that time, three different cultures lived together and sharing the city turning it in a place of peace, wisdom and culture. That aim promotes some important values intrinsic in Scouting as tolerance, solidarity, respect and education in peace.

ASDE-Scouts in España (www.scout.es)

ASDE-Scouts of Spain is an educative organization, independant, plural, with 100 years of history. Composed by 17 Regional Organizations representatives of the 15 Regions and autonomous cities Ceuta and Melilla. It counts with more than 30.000 scouts.

ASDE-Scouts of Spain is one of the biggest NGO of youth volunteering in the country. We work to contribute to a comprehensive education of boys, girls and young people, between 6 and 21 years old, supporting in the building of a better world where people fulfil themselves as persons, and playing a constructive role in society, through the education in the free time, getting support in our own educative project.
